

Gunmen Kill Three In Katsina Attack

From Danjuma Michael, Katsina

GUNMEN suspected to be bandits, on Friday night, shot and killed three people. They also injured two others at Kakumi community in Bakori Local Council of Katsina State.

Dozens of the gunmen, who rode on motorcycles, reportedly stormed and ransacked the community.

During the attack, they shot five persons and three lost their lives, while two sustained gunshot wounds. The injured were taken to the Bakori General Hospital, where they are receiving medical attention.

A source said the gunmen were on a reprisal to avenge the recent killing of their member in the community.

Like other states in the Northwest, Katsina has been faced by security challenges brought about by activities of bandits, kidnappers and rustlers.

Spokesperson for the police command in the state, Gambo Isah, was yet to confirm the incident, as at time of this report.
