

MEANWHILE, the Wukari farmers were said to be preparing their farmlands for the farming season when they were sent to their graves by the gunmen.

Confirming the report, Wukari Local Council Chairman, Dr. Daniel Adi, said the council had been under incessant security threat.

He said the local council leadership would tread every legitimate mile to fish out the perpetrators.

Pleading with the residents not take the law into their hands, as relevant paths would be trod to bring the killers to book, the council boss vowed to collaborate with security operatives to reduce crime in the area.

The police, at the time of filing this report, said they were yet to receive official report from the Divisional Police Officer (DPO).
