

Three university students die in car crash

By Danjuma Michael,
Katsina
22 April 2021 | 2:57 am

Ngige promises adjustment of pension as NUP plans protest
10 hours ago

Three students of Katsina State-owned Umaru Musa Yar'Adua University (UMYU) have died in an auto crash.

The accident, which occurred late Tuesday night, also saw two other students of the institution critically injured and currently hospitalised.

Sources in the institution identified the deceased students as Hamza Lawal, studying Mathematics Education; Hamza Hamza, and Salisu Garba, both studying Geography Education.

Those injured include Halili Ibrahim and Abdulbasit Aminu, studying Physics and Geography Education respectively.

A spokesperson for the university, Abdulhamid Danjuma, and UMYU's chairman, the National Association of Katsina State Students, Ibrahim Nasir, confirmed the incident.

They described the death of the students as a great loss to both their families and the university, even as they prayed for a quick recovery for the two hospitalised students.

Firms to provide free access to lecturers, students virtual learning
10 hours ago

Ijaw lawyers move for peaceful resolution of Niger Delta's developmental challenges
10 hours ago

