

Police arrest 20-year-old for alleged murder

From Odita Sunday, Abuja

OPERATIVES of FCT Police Command have arrested one Danladi Abubakar, 20, for culpable homicide along Kasuwa-Dere, Gwagwalada axis of Abuja.

Spokesperson for the command, ASP Yusuf Mariam, said the suspect was arrested by police detectives from Gwagwalada Division.

He was arrested following credible intelligence for the gruesome murder of a yet to be identified middle-aged woman.

"The suspect, who was identified by another victim, confessed to being a member of a notorious phone snatching syndicate operating in Gwagwalada axis.

"Exhibits recovered are one sharp knife used for stabbing the deceased and one techno phone belonging to the late woman," he said.

In a related development, police operatives from Kubwa Division foiled an armed robbery attempt in a hotel along Kubwa axis. The "operatives who were on routine patrol engaged the robbers in a fierce gun duel. However, one of the suspects sustained serious gunshot injuries and, was rushed to the hospital where the doctor confirmed him dead.

"Exhibits recovered from the late suspect are one berretta pistol, three rounds, one silver Mazda space wagon and plate numbers. Effort is in top gear to arrest fleeing suspects. "All the suspects would be arraigned in court upon conclusion of investigation. "The command enjoins residents to report all suspicious movements, emergency or distress through the following numbers: 08032003913, 08061581938, 07057337653, 08028940883, and to report the conduct of police officers, call the Public Complaint Bureau (PCB) number 09022222352," Yusuf said.

Danladi