

Council staff nabbed for allegedly raping 13-year-old girl to death

From Monday Osayande, Asaba

THE police in Delta State have arrested a staff of the State Local Government Service Commission, Mr. Nwosu Chuka, who allegedly hypnotised and raped a 13-year-old girl to death.

The victim was allegedly raped to death at a hotel in Issele-Uku, Aniocha North Local Council of the state.

The Guardian learnt that the suspect surrendered himself to the Police after weeks of raping Miss Joy Nwabueze Onua, who allegedly bled to death.

Sources said that Mr. Chuka confessed to the crime, before he was detained at the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID), in Asaba.

The deceased, it was learnt, is still at FMC mortuary Asaba.

Briefing newsmen, the Chairman, Delta State Child welfare Implementation Committee, Mrs. Kevwe Agas, said that the Committee was waiting for police report to proceed to court.

She said: "When the case of death of a 13-year-old rape victim, (names withheld) got to us, our team of investigators were sent to gather information for the committee. We have done our report, now are awaiting the police to commence legal action."

Spokesperson for the police command, DSP Bright Edafe confirmed the incident.
