tectives visited and photographed the scene and arrested the suspect.

Hundeyin said the corpse was evacuated to a public morgue for autopsy and that further investigation is on.

MEANWHILE, the Lagos State Police Command said based on credible intelligence at its disposal, that hoodlums and cultists have perfected plans to celebrate what they call 7/7 Neo Black Movement of Africa aka Black Axe Day today.

In view of this, the Lagos State Commissioner of Police, Abiodun Alabi, warned the groups their plans and not to scuttle the peace enjoyed in the state.

The Command said the Command's tactical teams, Area Commanders and DPOs in collaboration with other sister agencies are fully prepared to clamp down heavily on organisers, leaders and progenitors of such sinister groups whose aim is to cause wanton violence in the state.
