

Troops kill five Boko Haram terrorists, arrest one in Borno

By Njadvara Musa, Maiduguri

27 November 2022 | 3:34 am

Troops of Operation Hadin Kai (OPHK) in the North East have neutralised five Boko Haram terrorists. They also arrested one in the Mafa-Nganzai axis of Borno State.

The insurgents were killed, while moving in a convoy of gun trucks and motorcycles from the Northern part of the state to the Mafa axis.

A counter-insurgency expert in the Lake Chad region, Zagazola Makama, in Maiduguri, yesterday, said that the troops also captured one terrorist alive, while others fled with gunshot wounds.

He said the troops achieved the feat on November 24, 2022, while acting on credible intelligence that terrorists were moving towards the Mafa axis.

On how the terrorists were killed, Makama said: “The soldiers laid an ambush for the terrorists and instantly, neutralised five of them.”

He added that the captured terrorist was handed over to the appropriate authorities for further investigation.

“While dominating the Mafa axis, the troops are aggressively patrolling along the Maiduguri-Dikwa-Gambouru Road. “The troops are also trailing other fleeing terrorists to locate their hideouts for neutralisation,” he said.