

Gunmen kill APC chieftain in Imo

1

GUNMEN have reportedly killed a member of the All Progressives Congress (APC) Presidential Campaign Council, in Oru East Council of Imo State, Capt. Tony Enoch.

A source, who disclosed this to journalists, yesterday, said the victim, a retired military officer, was killed while returning from an APC stakeholders' meeting.

The gunmen reportedly ambushed the victims around Awomama Technical School, and after killing him, dumped his body in the boot of his car.

When contacted, the spokesperson for the police, Henry Okoye, said he was yet to be briefed about the incident but promised to make inquiries.