

Fresh Plateau attacks claim six lives in Mangu, Bokkos LGs

By Isa Abdulsalami Ahovi (Jos) and Victor Gbonegun(Lagos)

01 January 2024 | 4:03 am

This image grab made from an AFPTV video taken in Maiyanga village on December 26, 2023 shows an aerial view of destroyed homes after armed groups conducted a series of deadly attacks in Nigeria's central Plateau State.(Photo by Kim Masara / AFPTV / AFP)

• Declare emergency in state, Yoruba council tells FG

At least, six persons have lost their lives in fresh attacks in Plateau State, barely a week that over 190 persons were slaughtered in the state.

Suspected Fulani militia reportedly attacked Kwahaslalek Community in Mangu Local Government Area (LGA), yesterday, around 1.00a.m.,killing three persons and leaving two injured.

The attacked community is behind the permanent site of the National Youth Service Corps (NYSC) Camp in Mangu.

According to a source, the situation remained very tense, as military and other security agencies were trying their best to calm the situation