body of one of the male victims was found at dawn. According to sources, the villagers are making efforts to recover bodies of the remaining two.

crimes in recent times.

Community sources said the attack was to install fear in the minds of residents and to discourage members of the community from cooperating with the Police and other security agents in intelligence and information sharing. When contacted, spokesperson for the state police command, SP Grace Iringe Koko said she will verify and revert, but she didn't do so as at press time.

Meanwhile, the Civil Military Police Paramilitary Relations (CIMPARR) has condemned the killing. Coordinator of the group, Green Isaac, urged Governor Siminalayi Fubara to redeem the N100 million bounty placed on deceased cultist, David Gift.
