

Breaking News: Court admits 10 #EndBadgovernance protesters to N10m bail

Metro

One dead, another injured in Epe truck accident

By Bertram Nwannekanma

11 September 2024 | 3:30 am

Resurrection Of Jesus

Proof Of Jesus' Resurrection Shown

Get the latest news delivered straight to your inbox every day of the week. Stay informed with the Guardian's leading coverage of Nigerian and world news, business, technology and sports.

Email address

Sign up now

Scene of the accident in Epe

A man lost his life in a collision between a mini-truck and an articulated lorry at Araga Bus Stop, Poka Road, in the Epe area of Lagos.

The mini-truck, carrying Dangote Cement, was hit by an unidentified articulated lorry attempting to overtake it.

The articulated lorry fled the scene

Get the latest news delivered straight to your inbox every day of the week. Stay informed with the Guardian's leading coverage of Nigerian and world news, business, technology and sports.

The head of Public Affairs at the Lagos State Emergency Management Agency (LASEMA), Nosa Okunbor, confirmed the incident, stating that LASEMA's Whale Response Team was dispatched following distress calls. Upon arrival, they found the mini-truck and the deceased motorboy.

The victim's remains were recovered and handed over to the police.

In a separate incident, a truck carrying scrap metal overturned near Maryland Roundabout in Lagos. The truck driver lost control while navigating the roundabout at high speed, spilling its contents onto the road.

Fortunately, there were no casualties in this incident, as the driver and his assistant escaped unharmed.

LASEMA's Cobra Response Team responded to the scene and ensured the safety of responders and road users.

Get the latest news delivered straight to your inbox every day of the week. Stay informed with the Guardian's leading coverage of Nigerian and world news, business, technology and sports.