

Three students remanded for allegedly beating colleague to death

A CHIEF Magistrate's Court at Iyaganku Ibadan yesterday remanded three students for allegedly causing the death of their colleague.

The students, Shodimu Halima, 18; Agbedun Zainab, 23; and Olaleye Oladunni, 23, all of Iseyin College of Health Science and Technology, are facing a two-count charge bordering on conspiracy and murder.

The Magistrate, Mr M. Mudashiru, who did not take their pleas for lack of jurisdiction, ordered their remand at the Agodi Correctional Centre, Ibadan.

Mudashiru said the remand was pending the issuance of legal advice from the Directorate of Public Prosecution (DPP).

He, thereafter, adjourned the case until December 30 for mention.

The prosecuting counsel, Inspector Femi Oluwadare, had earlier told the court that the defendants allegedly conspired with others at large to commit the offence.

According to the prosecutor, the defendants allegedly caused the death of one Eniola Ismail, 16, by beating her with fists on July 29, at about 4:00 p.m. at Iseyin, Oyo State.

"The defendants allegedly fought with the deceased on July 29, in school after which the deceased went home. Getting home, the deceased complained of body pains and died later," he said.

Oluwadare said the offences were contrary to Section 316 and punishable under Sections 319 and 324 of the Criminal Code Laws of Oyo State 2000.
