

Breaking News: Rivers LG polls: Action Alliance wins chairman, councilor positions in Etche

National

Oborevworì mourns two-year-old pupil who died in school building collapse

By Monday Osayande, Asaba

05 October 2024 | 2:35 am

Delta State governor Sheriff Oborevworì

A two-year-old pupil of Eghrepka Primary School, Ewu in Ughelli South Local Council of Delta State, Ojiyovwin Salvation, reportedly lost his life when a dilapidated building collapsed on him on Thursday.

The Guardian learnt that the dilapidated building collapsed on him during a downpour. Three other surviving victims are currently receiving treatment in an undisclosed hospital due to severe injuries.

Meanwhile, the State Governor, Sheriff Oborevwori has mourned the deceased, and sent condolences to his family. In a statement by his Chief Press Secretary, Sir Festus Ekpen Ahon, who described the incident as most unfortunate.

In this article

Ojiyowwin Salvation

Sheriff Oborevwori

Related

Police arrest wanted rapist, armed robber in Ogun

1 hour ago

Innovation, Deborah Okedoyin pioneers plant-based meat safety solutions

6 hours ago

Armed thugs storm Rivers LG secretariat, chase chairman away

New FCT police boss Disu resumes today