

Report this

Metro

Amotekun arrests 20-year-old over alleged murder of elderly woman in Ondo

By Adewale Momoh, Akure

30 October 2024 | 3:08 am

Get the latest news delivered straight to your inbox every day of the week. Stay informed with the Guardian's leading coverage of Nigerian and world news, business, technology and sports.

Email address

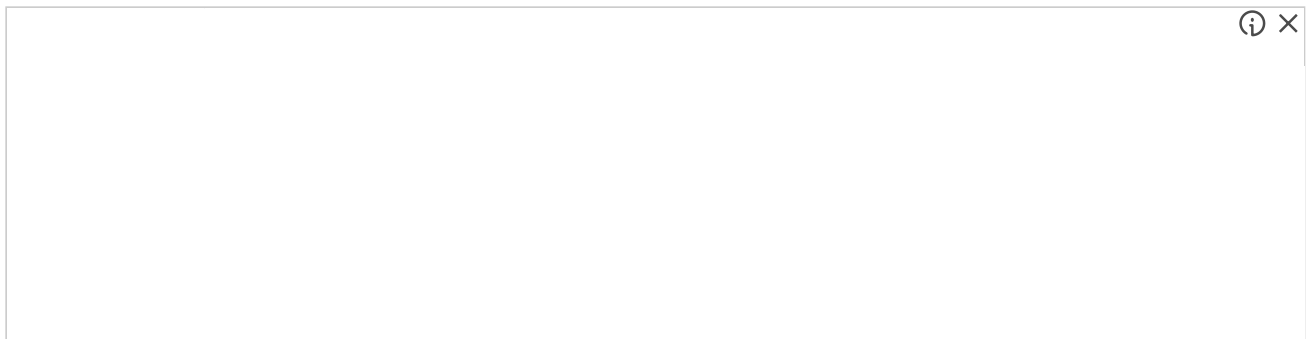

Sign up now

Suspect

The Ondo State Security Network Agency, also known as the Amotekun Corps, has arrested a 20-year-old man, identified as Friday Akinmade, for allegedly killing a 65-year-old woman in Owo, headquarters of Owo Local Council Area, Ondo State.

Akinmade allegedly struck the woman on the head with a plank, accusing her of stealing N3,000 from his room.

Get the latest news delivered straight to your inbox every day of the week. Stay informed with the Guardian's leading coverage of Nigerian and world news, business, technology and sports.

^ activities, and attempted murder of law enforcement officers.

“Additionally, a 42-year-old man named Gbenro attacked Amotekun officers to conceal his illegal activities. Also paraded was Samuel Peter, 21, linked to attempted murder, and Akinmade, who allegedly committed outright murder,” he said.

According to Adeleye, the corps also detained a 20-year-old suspect, Segun Owolabi, for allegedly stealing motorcycles and robbing their owners.

Several individuals aged between 22 and 25, identified as Toba, Pelumi, Ogumade, and Oriade, were also accused of burglary, primarily targeting unoccupied homes. Another suspect, Shegwo Yusuf, was charged with damaging household property.

Get the latest news delivered straight to your inbox every day of the week. Stay informed with the Guardian's leading coverage of Nigerian and world news, business, technology and sports.

-
- ^ farmers are encouraged to resume farming as Amotekun rangers are deployed across forest reserves to prevent encroachment,” he added.

In this article

Alleged Murder

Amotekun

Related

×

Get the latest news delivered straight to your inbox every day of the week. Stay informed with the Guardian's leading coverage of Nigerian and world news, business, technology and sports.