A corps member of the National Youth Service Corps (NYSC), Tayachibiyacha Ebal, has died after slumping at the Dakin Gari orientation camp in Kebbi State.

Sources at the camp revealed that the corps member collapsed suddenly and was immediately rushed to the camp clinic.

The deceased, a female, was referred to the Federal Medical Centre (FMC) in Birnin Kebbi for advanced treatment.

However, despite efforts by medical personnel to resuscitate her, she was pronounced dead.

The Kebbi State Commissioner for Youth and Sports, Muhammad Fingila, who confirmed the incident, described the death as unfortunate.

Fingila disclosed that Ebal's remains had been sent to her home state, Adamawa, for burial.

The commissioner extended condolences to the grieving family on behalf of the state government.
