

Metro

‘Peacemaker’ stabs man to death in Delta

By Eniola Daniel

06 January 2025 | 3:19 am

Suspect

A 30-year-old man, Daniel Onyejekwe, has been arrested for stabbing one Christian Goodluck to death in Delta State.

Onyejekwe, who was arrested in Sapele, on January 1, 2025, claimed that he met the victim assaulting his mother and attempted to intervene leading to a fight.

He allegedly stabbed the deceased with a broken bottle during the ensuing fight, which later led to Goodluck's death.

The spokesperson for the Delta State Police Command, Bright Edafe, who confirmed the incident, warned citizens to control their temper.

Meanwhile, the state's Commissioner of Police, Olufemi Abaniwonda urged members of the public to be law abiding and continue to support the police in the fight against crime and criminalities.

He assured them of the Command's commitment to providing security, maintenance of law and protection of lives and properties, among other duties in the state.

In this article

Delta State

Stabs

Related

Police decorate 181 promoted officers in Katsina

1 hour ago

FRSC pledges commitment to road safety

1 hour ago