

Police investigate discovery of two bodies dumped in Lagos canal

By : Eniola Daniel Date: 12 Sep 2025 Share :

The Lagos State Police Command has launched an investigation into the discovery of the bodies of two young men in the Igando area of Lagos. At about 8:30 a.m. on September 9, 2025, two unidentified male corpses were found tied together with a rope in a canal beside Arowolo Filling Station, along LASU/Iba Road, Igando.

The victims, believed to be in their 20s and 30s, had their faces covered with nylon, while their hands and legs were bound behind their backs before they were dumped in the swamp.

When The Guardian contacted the Lagos State Police Command, the acting Public Relations Officer, Babaseyi Oluseyi, said: “Police have begun investigations to determine the identities of the deceased and the circumstances surrounding their sudden and unnatural deaths.

Related News

- No damage to completed section of Coastal Highway, Umahi insists
- APC criticises Obi's stance on borrowing, questions his moral authority
- Venue changed for Hilda Baci's 'world's largest pot of jollof' attempt

“The bodies have been taken to the Mainland General Hospital Mortuary for autopsy.

“The Lagos State Police Command is working to establish the identity of the deceased and the circumstances surrounding