

NEWS · NIGERIA

Reps' minority leader, Rivers embattled Speaker, others in solidarity walk for Wike

OBINNA NWAOKU JUNE 26, 2024

f in X p

Tension as explosion allegedly kills protester

The Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, Rivers State House of Assembly, Martin Amaewhu, and Council, George Ariolu, and their supporters held

In his address, Chinda commended the IGP for maintaining peace and order, stating that there can be no peace without justice and obedience to rule of law.

“We are in support of governance by law not by impunity. We are in support of the position of the IGP,” he said. Addressing the crowd, Amaewhule commended the people of Obio/Akpor for their peaceful disposition, saying that they believe in the rule of law and the Constitution of Nigeria.

He said: “Nobody is above the law. We stand by democracy, the principle of separation of power. We cannot allow a breakdown of law, the governor cannot choose which law to obey and which not to obey.”

Also, the Chief of Staff to the FCT Minister, Chidi Amadi, stated that the gathering was an affirmation of trust and support to the President, Bola Tinubu, and Wike.

MEANWHILE, there was a reported chaos in Port Harcourt following a gas explosion, which allegedly killed a middle-aged person. The explosion was Presidential around 9:45 a.m. The sudden explosion