

Two feared dead in Lagos motor accident

TWO people were feared dead and three others critically injured in Lagos yesterday when an unlicensed assistant drove an articulated vehicle into two commercial motorcyclists parked at Palm Avenue junction, Isolo Road, Mushin.

The accident, which occurred at about 2.00p.m. according to an eye witness could have claimed more lives as the vehicle was lumbering its way towards a three-storey building.

The driver had gone to eat at a canteen nearby, when the inexperienced assistant started driving the vehicle.

When The Guardian visited the scene at about 4.00p.m., the driver and his assistant had been arrested by policemen.
