

Three Feared Killed In Ogun Cult Clash

No fewer than three persons have been feared killed in a cult clash in Sagamu resulting from a disagreement on the sharing formula of a money given by an unnamed business man in the community.

Police have therefore arrested well over 14 persons in both Sagamu and Ikenne in connection with the incident. Ogun command Public Relations Officer, Olufemi Awoyale confirmed the arrest but denied knowledge of the dead three when contacted on phone. The clash occurred on Sunday while the arrest was effected Monday.

Eyewitnesses account said six persons were seriously injured in the clash that broke out when the cult activists disagreed over the formula for sharing money given to them by some business men in Sagamu.
