

Robbers Machete Policeman To Death

An Assistant Superintendent of Police (ASP), Yusuf Bagi, serving with the Bosso Police Division of Niger State, has been macheted to death by armed robbers.

The murdered police officer, aged 44, according to Daily Independent investigations, was attacked and killed at about 2 a.m. within Minna metropolis.

The police, according to the source, was pursuing the hoodlums with a cutlass after attacking the house and dispossessing the occupants including the policeman of their valuables.

Unknown to him, some of the robbers laid ambush, as they pounced on him and used cutlasses to attack their victim.

He was reportedly rushed to the hospital where he died as a result of the cuts he sustained on his back and head.

Daily Independent correspondent in Niger State gathered that this is not the first time such case is being reported in the area as similar incidents took place in the past.
