

meeting," Masari said.

Ene, Bakassi Leader, Dies In Auto Crash

The leader of the Bakassi Movement for Self Determination, Tony Ene Asuquo, died in a motor accident on Thursday on the Calabar-Itu road on his way to Calabar, the Cross River State capital.

Another member of the movement, Richard Ekpeyong, is also being detained by the State Security Services (SSS) on the orders of Governor Donald Duke.

An online news agency, Saharareporters, said Ene died when a passenger bus collided headlong with his private car.

Eyewitnesses said no fewer than 21 persons died on the spot in the accident. Ene, 40, is survived by a two-year old boy and his wife.