One Killed, Others Injured In Lagos Road Crash

One person was feared dead on Ikorodu Road, Lagos State, on Tuesday evening while several others sustained injuries as a trailer swerved off the road and rammed into three commuter buses.

The incident occurred at one end of Anthony Oke to Oshodi bridge in Anthony Village.

Witnesses said the trailer was on top speed heading towards Oshodi when it suddenly lost control.

Occupants of the buses were said to have narrowly escaped death as some of them jumped down while the trailer was still inadvertently dragging the buses along. Many sustained injuries in the process.

The deceased was said to have died as a result of the impact of the hit which affected the one of the buses seriously and damaged it.

When Daily Independent visited the scene, it was gathered that men of the LASTMA had come to the scene to evacuate the vehicles and rushed the injured to hospitals for treatment.

"Some minutes after the incident happened, the LASTMA came and moved the vehicle away", a witness who confirmed that the accident involved three buses said.
