

Said Igbiniedion. "This is not a case of attempted murder, it is

The lawyer, who filed the first case against King at a gratifying to be around to see the collapse of evil," Akerele concluded.

Police Kill Four Robbery Suspects In Effurun

• Arrest Two Others

By Francis Onoiribholo,
CORRESPONDENT, Warri

Police in Effurun have crushed a six-man robbery gang that allegedly attacked the residence of a high chief based in Ugborikoko near Warri in the early hours of Tuesday, killing four and arresting two.

Daily Independent gathered that during the attack on the chief, the gang took from him over N90,000 cash and coral beads worth several thousands of naira.

It was learnt that members of the gang met their Waterloo while the operation was going on, as the police received distressed call and swiftly moved into the area. In the ensuing exchange of fire, two were felled by police bullet and other two that was seriously wounded died on their way to the hospital.

A source at the Ekpan Police Division disclosed that two others from whom the sum of about N31,000 was recovered were arrested on their way from a nightclub.

Also recovered from them were four cut to size English made double barrel gun, iron saw and charms, while the police are investigating the whereabouts of the coral beads, which the suspects said had already been disposed of to their customer.