Pandemonium engulfed the residents of Zuba, a suburb of the Federal Capital Territory (FCT), Abuja on Monday following the death of a driver and two passengers.

The trio were said to have been shot dead by policemen at a check point over N20 gratification.

An eye witness account said the Police had demanded N20 from the driver who refused and sped off.

The angry Policemen consequently opened fired on the driver and the two passengers, killing in the process.

But angered by the incident, residents of the area immediately went on rampage and gave the Policemen who scampered for safety a hot chase.

The offending policemen escaped by the whiskers but a Divisional Crime Officer (DCO) whose name could not be ascertained ran into the mob who pounced on him.
