

Driver Crushes Policeman To Death

Thirty-two-year-old Chris Obasi last week appeared before an Igboere Chief Magistrate's Court accused of driving dangerously on the highway and killing a police officer attached to the Ajah Police Station.

The police alleged in charge B/72/06 that on December 12, 2006, about 8 p.m. at Ajah, Lagos-Epe Expressway, Obasi, being the driver in charge of a BMW saloon car with registration No. BZ 90 ABJ, drove same on public highway in a "reckless and dangerous manner" and crushed Moses Agbane to death, a police officer attached to Ajah Police Station.

The police equally accused Obasi of damaging a motorcycle valued N70,000 beyond repairs.

Obasi, who pleaded not guilty, was granted bail.