

Mob Kills Three Armed Robbers In Lagos

Luck ran out of three members of an armed robbery gang in Lagos on Wednesday when an irate mob hacked them to death.

Sources said the irate mob apprehended the robbery suspects at Randle Avenue, Close to Surulere General Hospital, having chased them from Ojuelegba.

Two versions were given for the gang's escapade. A version said the robbers had wanted to raid a new generation bank at Ojuelegba but policemen on duty at the bank dislodged them.

A police team, which responded to a distressed call, was said to have engaged the bandits in a fierce gun battle before they fled.

Another version said the suspects were operating in a commercial bus popularly referred to as one chance to rob unsuspecting commuters before luck ran out of them.
