

Two Killed In Ogun Mayhem

No fewer than two persons were killed and three others injured when supporters of two factions of Peoples' Democratic Party (PDP) clashed in Iperu Remo, Ogun State on Tuesday.

The clash was between the supporters of Ajanlekoko and Salako, leaders of the two factionalised groups of the PDP in the ancient town.

Guns, machetes, club and other dangerous weapons were freely used to settle score during the clash. When the mayhem broke out, one person died on the spot, while the second victim later passed on, on Wednesday.

Meanwhile, the injured three victims are on admission at an intensive care unit of the General Hospital in the town receiving treatment.

GAN... 41 P... M...