

One Killed, 26 Arrested In Abia During Elections

Commissioner of Police in Abia State, Yomi Onashile, has said one person was killed while no fewer than 26 persons were arrested for various electoral offences in various parts of the state during the just concluded general elections.

He told newsmen in Umuahia, the state capital, that the deceased was killed at Arochukwu Local Government Area by a mob during the April 14 governorship and House of Assembly elections, adding that the case had been handed over to the Force Headquarters in Abuja for investigations.

Briefing newsmen on Tuesday, he stated that the Criminal Investigations Department (CID) in the state was already investigating those linked with the electoral offences with a view to prosecuting them. Onashile, who said the police arrested 20 persons during the elections, pointed out that his men did not arrest anybody during the presidential election.
