

Three Killed In Igwuruta By Rival Gangs

Three persons were on Tuesday killed in a fighting involving two rival gangs over struggle for supremacy in Umumei and Umuolu in Igwuruta community of Ikwerre Local Government area of Rivers State.

Eyewitnesses said the fighting started around midnight and raged till 5.00am, leaving behind the three deaths.

A source in the community said the gunmen also used dynamite to bomb the home of the paramount ruler of the community, Chief Ugudu Nyeche, who, however, managed to escape through a footpath.

They also bombed the homes of Sam Nwulu and Chibuike Ozu with dynamite before fleeing.