

Gunmen Kill Man In P'Harcourt

By Ubokikwan Gabriel
REPORTER, Port Harcourt

Armed bandits have struck and killed Mr. Prince Echendu at his residence at 8 Olunike Street, Port Harcourt, Rivers State.

Echendu's younger brother, John Echendu, disclosed this to Daily Independent.

He said his late brother was shot by four young men in front of his compound, while returning from work at about 10.50 p.m on Wednesday.

John revealed that the assailants came with a 406 Peugeot car, which they later abandoned after the operation.

The late Echendu, 53, was an accountant working with Global International in Port Harcourt, Rivers State.

The Rivers State Police Public Relations Officer, Mrs. Ireju Barasua, who confirmed the assassination, also disclosed that the late Echendu was a member of Rivers State Police Community Relations Committee.

The police said Echendu's car which the assassins also stole has been recovered.
