

Five Feared Dead In Ikorodu Auto Crash

By Femi Ogbonnikan
REPORTER, Lagos

Five persons, including a pregnant woman, are feared dead in an auto crash involving three vehicles.

The incident occurred at Agric bus stop, Owutu, Ikorodu, Lagos at 7.30 p.m. on Friday.

Eyewitnesses' account revealed that a trailer conveying a container, which was heading towards Ketu, lost control and rammed into two vehicles, a Nissan Sunny saloon car marked DR 183 LSR Lagos and a taxi Volkswagen Golf saloon car marked XT 798 AAA Lagos, which were held up in traffic at the bus stop.

It was gathered that the trailer conveying log of woods fell on the two vehicles.

Immediately the incident occurred, the driver of the trailer reportedly took to his heels to avoid mob attack.

Only the driver of the taxi survived while the three passengers on board were said to have died. A source disclosed that the two occupants of the Nissan car were seriously injured.

Meanwhile, the corpses and those injured have been taken to the Ikorodu General Hospital on Beach road.