

Guard Kills Colleague, Flees

Homicide detectives are on the trail of a night guard who allegedly killed his colleague and disappeared.

The incident occurred at Crystal Estate, Festac Town, Lagos at the weekend.

An eyewitness claimed the suspect, Azuka Oke, stabbed Joseph Adewole during an argument.

Police sources investigating the murder said the 29-years old suspect fled after committing the crime.

Lagos State Police Command Public Relations Officer, Olubode Ojajuni, confirmed the incident.

According to him, another guard at the scene of the incident had also fled.

The police spokesman, however, said the matter had been transferred from Festac Divisional Police Station to the Homicide Section of the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID), Panti, Yaba, Lagos, for further investigation.

In another development, police in Lagos have recovered three cars abandoned by a gang.

When the three vehicles – Mercedes Benz 230E car, Toyota Carina 11 car and a Honda Civic car – were searched, a mini UTC ~~car~~ and an AK47 rifle loaded with five rounds of ~~ammunition~~ were recovered, it was gathered.

Ojajuni said the matter was being investigated by SCID, Panti.
