

One Dies In Communal Clash

Two rival groups have clashed at Udo community in Edo State, leaving one person dead.

Commissioner of Police, Bala Hassan, confirmed the incident, adding that his command had contained the clash and deployed 30 anti-riot policemen to the community.

One of the groups was preparing for a funeral ceremony when it was attacked by members of the other group, he said. There had been clashes in the community in Ovia South West local government area for some time now over chieftaincy matters.
