

Four Family Members Die In Port Harcourt Fire

Four members of a family, including a husband, his wife and two children, have been confirmed dead in a fire incident in Port Harcourt in the early hours of Friday.

The victims were identified as Mr. and Mrs. Ibinabo Young-Harry, their two-year-old son, Emmanuel, and a daughter. Witnesses said the mysterious fire occurred on the upstairs of a two bedroom apartment along Saint John's College of Education, Aba Road, Port Harcourt, consuming all the property in the house beyond recognition.

Saturday Independent gathered that the impact of the fire has also affected the ground floor of the storey building. Neighbours were seen packing their belongings to the safest houses closer to the area.

Other children in the apartment got severe burns. Cries, pains and sorrow saturate the atmosphere of the compound of the deceased families, while neighbours and loved ones besieged the area to show sympathy on the impacted family.
