

Son Stabs Mother To Death

By Gbenga Abegunrin
REPORTER, Ibadan

Police in Oyo State have arrested a young man, Jamiu Akintola, who allegedly stabbed his own mother to death in Ibadan last Saturday.

The suspect reportedly stabbed the deceased, Modinat Abeo Aderemi, with a dagger on the chest during a confrontation between the duo.

The offence of the deceased, according to the Oyo State

Police Commissioner, Udom Ekpoudom, who paraded the suspect, was her incessant advice to Jamiu to stop smoking indian hemp.

Also on Monday, the police paraded a 25 year-old man, Saheed Azeez, who was arrested with three human skulls at Shasha area of Ibadan at the weekend.

Ekpoudom revealed that upon his arrest, Saheed confessed that he was contracted by one Dauda Gbolagade of Ileanwo, Agbaje area of Ibadan, to get the human skulls for him at the rate of N3,000 per one.

The police boss disclosed that the confession subsequently led to the arrest of Gbolagade, who had also admitted that he sent Saheed to get him the human skulls for money-making rituals.

Parading the young man that stabbed his own mother, Ekpoudom said the advice given to Jamiu to stop smoking indian hemp infuriated him to take the action.