

Three Drown In Lagos

By Andrew Utulu,
REPORTER, Lagos.

Two teenage brothers and a woman were feared drowned in separate incidents at the weekend in Lagos.

Daily Independent gathered that the teenagers, Michael Enwinogbon, 16, and Solomon Enwinogbon, 13, whose resident is located close to the female prison at Kirikiri, Olodi Apapa, were believed to have been drowned at the Kirikiri River.

The tragic incident, it was learnt, occurred at about 1p.m. last Friday. Further investigation revealed that as at Saturday afternoon, their corpses were yet to be found. Meanwhile the matter has been reported at the Kirikiri police station where detectives have commenced investigation into what led to the sad incident.

In a related development, one Risikatu Ganiyu Jimoh was reported drowned in a well.

Investigation revealed that the deceased until her death lived at 7 LASU Close, Okokomaiko, Lagos.

It was gathered that she allegedly fell inside the well in her compound and got drowned.
