

One Dies, Others Injured In Abuja Auto Crash

A motor accident involving a commercial bus and a car claimed one life and wounded nine others on Friday in Abuja.

The accident, involving a commercial bus with registration number, XA 529 TRR and the car, registered as XB 191 NEM, occurred at the Bolingo Hotel junction, Garki area.

The accident left the driver of the bus dead while others were wounded.

One of the victims, Chukwudi Okafor, who was taken to the Garki Hospital, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN), that the bus was travelling to Wuse from Area One.

A medical personnel at the hospital, who preferred anonymity, said six of the survivors and the corpse of the driver, were brought to the hospital.

At the National Hospital, Abuja, Dr. Abiodun Awolusi, one of the personnel, said only three of the victims could be admitted due to lack of space.

Sympathisers at the scene of the accident called on government to introduce measures to check the rate of accidents at the junction.

Men of the FRSC, who came to the scene late, could not ascertain the cause of the accident, but witnesses attributed it to reckless driving.
