One suspected robber was killed while two others were arrested during a cross exchange of fire with the police in Lagos at the weekend.

The incident occurred at Fin-Niger Bus Stop on the Badagry expressway, Lagos.

Informed sources said the three robbers, who were operating on a motorcycle, had an encounter with anti-robbery operatives from Area 'E' Police Command, FESTAC Town following a tip-off.

At the end of the ensuing encounter, one member of the gang was shot dead, while two other accomplices were arrested with bullet wounds.

A double short-gun, 10 live cartridges and the operational motorcycle (marked QE 281 ZRM) were recovered from the gang.

Similarly, the operatives from the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID), Panti Street, Yaba, Lagos, have arrested one Adams Nasiru for allegedly being in possession of firearms.

It was gathered that the suspect was picked up on Saturday at his Ikorodu hideout following a report that he was a member of the robbery gang that robbed a lone occupant of a truck, marked XB 477 AJU, at Total Filling Station, Akasolori, Itoikin-Ikorodu Road, Ikorodu.
