

Rival Cults Clash, One Dead

By Harris-Okon Emmanuel,
CORRESPONDENT, Warri

Oleh community, headquarters of Isoko South Local Government Council of Delta State was Tuesday held hostage for several hours during a gun duel between two rival cult groups, leaving a passer-by dead.

The deceased, 26, whose name was given as Sunny was on a motorcycle with his colleague going to a nearby community called Irri, when he was allegedly shot during the clash at about 6 p.m. around an Oleh popular evening market called Yanga.

An eyewitness, who narrated the incident, said the deceased hailed from Ikwere, Port Harcourt in Rivers State and was a staff of Mark-Co Electrical Nig. Ltd. in Port Harcourt.