

Two Feared Killed In Auto Crash

By Femi Ogonnikan
REPORTER, Lagos

Two passengers of a commercial vehicle were sent to their early graves at the weekend, when it lost control while in motion.

The incident occurred on Saturday at Ewadogbon Bus Stop, along Igando Road, a suburb of Lagos.

Daily Independent gathered that the Mitsubishi Bus, marked XB 193 ASB and driven by Waheed Usman, lost control before it somersaulted three times.

Two passengers, Mrs. Taiwo Adefuye (52), and Ogunsola Musibau (20), lost their lives in the crash.

Two other passengers sustained varying degrees of injury.

However, the Lagos State Police Command Spokesman, Frank

Mba, confirmed the accident.

According to the Superintendent of Police (SP), the two surviving victims were on admission at an undisclosed hospital in the city, where they are responding to treatment.

He added that the corpses of the two passengers had been removed by traffic policemen from Igando Divisional Station and deposited at an undisclosed public mortuary for post-mortem examination.

Meanwhile, two members of a robbery gang met their waterloo during an encounter with a team of anti-robbery policemen in Lagos at the weekend.

Following a distress call, it was learnt that anti-robbery operatives from Amukoko Divisional Police Station exchanged gun fire with the bandit, who operated on two motorcycles.