Asaba — Nine persons lost their lives with four others injured following a multiple accident on Asaba-Benin Highway officials of the Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) in Delta State have confirmed.

The accident, which occurred around 7 p.m. on Thursday according to the Sector Commander of the FRSC, Oluwasusi Famoloni took place around Alifekede, the border community between Edo and Delta states.

Famoloni informed that five of the victims were males, while four others were females all of who were taken to the Central Hospital, Agbor and police having taken possession of things recovered from the victims.

According to him, the accident involved a Toyota Hiace Bus with registration number XR 183 LSR, a towing van with registration number AG 530 GDD and a luxury bus with number XA 874 MUS.

Famoloni had informed last week that the command had recorded 33 other deaths with several injuries in 33 auto crashes in the state since September.

The Asaba-Benin Highway has claimed several lives between May to date. It had claimed the lives of 14 students of Christ The King College, Agbor who were on excursion to Benin not long ago.

That accident, which involved two commercial Toyota Hiace buses one with registration number XA 368 AYB at Abudu, Edo State end of the road also left 15 other persons injured.

Eight males and six females were said to have lost their lives while three males and 12 females were injured in the process.

Pastor of a Pentecostal church, a mother and her two-year-old daughter had also lost their lives on the notorious Onitsha-Benin Highway when the vehicle they were travelling in had a burst tyre and ran into a stationary trailer.

In the not too distant past, a young man lost his wife, mother and sister in an auto crash on the same road after he had gone to pay his wife's bride price when the vehicle they were travelling in collided with another resulting in the death of three other persons.
