Two Shot Dead In Sapele

By Harris-Okon Emmanuel Correspondent, Warri

The Yuletide ended on a sour note in Sapele in Delta State when a youth identified as Bando allegedly shot dead two of his friends.

Daily Independent learnt the incident took place at Yoruba Road in the town over yet-to-be disclosed reasons.

One of the deceased identified as Macgrey Oyeke, 28, and his visiting friend whose identity is yet to be known as at press time, was shot at close range by the assailant while one Popo sustained serious gunshot wounds.

He is now receiving treatment at the University of Benin Teaching Hospital in Edo State.

Daily Independent gathered that Bando's action followed a fracas which triggered at a popular hotel in Sapele last Friday.

Sources alleged that the attacker was one of those who invaded the Olu's Palace in Warri recently and disrupted the Itsekiri National Conference where Chief Rita Lori-Ogbebor and other chiefs were manhandled and destroyed property.

It was further learnt that the two dead boys were among those who attempted to wrest the pump action rifle from Bando in a bid to prevent more havoc in the area as he was said to have shot at two other boys in the area earlier in the day before killing the two friends in the hotel.

Sources stated that all entreaties by well-meaning individuals to drop the gun fell on deaf ears as he was said to have vowed to kill many people.
