An auto crash on the Benin-Asaba highway on Monday left one person dead and 14 others injured.

According to officials of the Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC), the accident took place around Issele-Uku junction at about 11.30 a.m.

The incident described by FRSC officials as a "lone fatal accident," claimed the life of a lady and left 13 men and another female injured.

It was said to have resulted from a burst tyre of a Toyota bus with registration number XR 396 APP while on a top speed.

The victims are said to have been rushed to a clinic at Obulu-Otiki.
