

Police Kill Four Suspected Robbers In Delta

By Felix Igbekoyi
Correspondent, Asaba

TWO suspected armed robbers allegedly terrorising Ubulu-Okiti axis of Benin-Asaba Express way were at the weekend killed by men of Delta State Command.

The killing followed by a team of detectives led by one Inspector John Danladi who attacked the suspects followed a tip off.

Charles Muka, the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), said the two of them were shot dead while five others escaped with bullet wounds.

While in operation, he further revealed, the policemen recovered a pair of sandals and hand-sets belonging to the robbers' victims.

He said the activities of herdsmen across the state was constituting nuisance to the command, accusing them of being responsible for series of robbery attacks across the state.

In another development, the police spokesman said two other robbery suspects were gunned down on the eve of the New Year when a gang attacked one Mrs. Eunice Ekjefire, in Warri.
