

Police Kill Robbery Suspect At Fish Depot

By Segun Adeleye

Reporter, Abeokuta

A ROBBERY suspect was shot dead by the police at the weekend after a failed robbery operation at Kowo Fish Depot in Abeokuta, Ogun State capital.

Five other members of the gang fled after sustaining gunshot wounds.

The suspects had stormed the popular Kowo Fish Depot at NEPA road, where they commanded customers and staffs of the depot to hand over all cash in their possession.

It was reliably gathered that the bandits had earlier snatched a car at Kuto area of the town, which they drove to the Fish Depot to carryout robbery operation, and had made away with over N2 million.

Acting on a tip-off, police pursued the bandits through Abeokuta-Ajebo road before nemesis caught up with them. The robbers immediately engaged the police in gun battle, but luck was not on the side as one of them was shot dead.