TWO PERSONS were at the weekend in Lagos sent to their early graves in separate ghastly road accidents.

In one of the crashes at the Ogudu Bus Stop on Oworonshoki-3rd Mainland Bridge on Sunday night, a Honda Accord saloon car, marked DP 973 APP (Lagos) and driven by one Olu-kunmi Odugbemi crushed to death an unidentified female pedestrian while crossing the highway.

According to Lagos State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Frank Mba, the victim gave up the ghost on the spot.

Also on Saturday, a Toyota bus, marked NC 979 KJA (Lagos) and driven by one Jamiu Ibrahim, ran over a male pedestrian, one Yavou Azabara, at the Akesan Junction, on Igando Road while crossing the ever-busy Lagos-Seme highway.
