A witness told our correspondent that the clash started when ACN gubernatorial candidate, Badaru Abubakar, who is an indigene of the local government, went to Babura town on Saturday and was said to have been attacked by PDP supporters and attempted to prevent him and his supporters from entering Babura, an attempt, which was resisted.

It was alleged that the PDP members threw stones at the convoy of the ACN gubernatorial candidate and this led to violence resulted in the killing one person, who was said to be a houseboy of the chairman of Babura local government council, Aminu Ahmed.

A sources told our correspondent that apart stoning the convoy of ACN gubernatorial candidate, PDP also booed the ACN supporters and shouted, "bamayi, bamayi", meaning "we don't do it, we don't do it" we don't want," which provoked the CAN members.

It was alleged that the deceased was butchered like an animal.

When contacted, the state secretary of the PDP, who is also the state Commissioner for Land and Housing, Rabi'u Isa Taura, said he was not informed officially informed as the secretary of the party.

"So I don't know what happened. You can confirm from the council chairman, Aminu Ahmed Babura, or the council PDP chairman or even from Sani Haruna Babura, who are all resident of the town", he added.

The spokesman of the state police command, ASP Abdul Jinjiri, confirmed the incident. Also contacted.
