

Auto crash claims two UI students

By Oladele Ogunsdola

Correspondent, Ibadan

UNIVERSITY of Ibadan community was thrown into mourning on Wednesday at news of the death of two students of the institution in an auto-crash at Olodo, Odeda Local Government Area of Ogun State.

The two students, Adejumo-bi Akeem, a final year student of Department of Chemistry and Adesola Jamiu, a 200 level student of Philosophy were said to be in the bus with other 12 students, but died on the spot immediately the accident occurred.

All residents of Tedder Hall in the institution, it was learnt that they were going in the hall bus to the naming ceremony of a colleague's child when the tragic event happened.