

Two immigration officers die, five injured in Oyo road accident

By Rotimi Akinwumi

Correspondent, Abuja

AT LEAST two immigration officers attached to the Oyo State command lost their lives while about five others sustained injuries in a motor accident that occurred in Oyo town on Saturday.

The immigration officers were traveling from Ibadan to Ilorin, Kwara State capital, for the wedding ceremony involving the child of one of their colleagues.

A source informed *Daily Independent * that the accident occurred when the Toyota Sienna space bus in which the immigration officers were traveling attempted to over-take a trailer.